E Pluribus Recycles ! A Play About Our Environment For Kindergarten - Fourth Grade

Tucson Clean & Beautiful is pleased to offer this award-winning, interactive play to Kindergarten-4th grade classes throughout the Tucson metropolitan area!

"E Pluribus Recycles!" features E Pluribus Packrat (the Tucson Clean & Beautiful mascot) and her new friend Martina Parker, the City Environmental Engineer. The characters explain the REDUCE, REUSE and RECYCLE concepts in a creative and entertaining format to teach young children the consequences and alternatives to throwing everything away. Show length: 25-30 minutes.

A limited number of performances are available from August- November 2013 and January-June 2014
Shows booked on a first-come, first-served basis, free of charge!

This interactive play is designed for groups of 50 children (maximum of two classes per show) with 2 (two) performances available per day. If possible please book a minimum of two shows per school and coordinate with other teachers at your school. Please allow 15 minutes between shows. We are not able to offer assembly-style performances, as this program is geared toward small groups. Prior to the show date, teachers will be provided with educational materials to introduce students to the Reduce, Reuse, and Recycle concepts.

Reserve your show date and time!
